GOOD SHEPHERD EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH, SCHOOL, AND PRESCHOOL

Downers Grove, Illinois

A member of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS)

MARCH 24TH AND 25TH, 2018

Welcome to Good Shepherd!

We are glad to have you with us in worship today! We exist to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18) and to “go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation.” (Mark 16:15)

We love to have children in worship with us! The pews in the back of the church are reserved especially for families with young children. At times we understand that children can become overly restless or start crying loudly. For times like these, we offer a special room called “The Shepherd’s Nook” where you will find comfortable furniture and a closed-circuit television monitor so that you can still follow our worship service. It’s a great place for children to regain their composure and then rejoin us for worship. “The Shepherd’s Nook” is located just to the left of the picture at the end of the hallway. If you need directions, please ask an usher. Additional restrooms and a drinking fountain are at the end of the hallway. Our restroom off the narthex does provide parents with a changing table and nursing mother’s privacy if desired.

For your comfort and convenience we have large print worship folders, hearing devices, crutches, and wheelchairs. If the previously mentioned items would be helpful to you or if you desire any other assistance please contact an usher, they will be happy to help you.

For those unable to join us in person, our Sunday morning worship services are streamed live at www.gsdg.org. We also make audio recordings of our worship for our shut-ins and anyone else who might wish to make use of them or pass them along to others. Please ask an usher for details. So that we may have a record of your visit, we ask you to sign the Friendship Register which is a small maroon book located at the end of each pew.

Our Practice of Holy Communion

Believing that Holy Scripture teaches that Holy Communion is intended for those who are truly one in faith, this congregation practices Close Communion. This means that Holy Communion is reserved for those who are members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church or other WELS and ELS churches. If you wish to join us in the future, please speak with one of our pastors after worship.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN LENT – PALM SUNDAY

The Savior's Message:

How much can you accomplish in a week? As the season of Lent draws to a close, we are once again reminded how Jesus accomplished and fulfilled his Heavenly Father's plan of our salvation during that Holy Week so long ago. We see how the majesty of Jesus is veiled by his humility as he enters Jerusalem riding a donkey bringing the blessings of righteousness and peace.

PERSONAL PRAYER UPON ENTERING GOD'S HOUSE

Hymn 110, Verse 3

Sometimes they strew his way And his sweet praises sing,
Resounding all the day Hosannas to their King.
Then "Crucify!" Is all their breath,
And for his death They thirst and cry. Amen.

ORDER OF SERVICE

We worship our Savior God by expressing humble repentance for our sins, hearing his Word, singing our thankful praise, and offering our fervent prayers.

M: Dear friends in Christ, today we gather together to begin the solemn celebration of Holy Week. We remember how Jesus entered into his own city to complete his work as our Savior: to suffer, to die, and to rise again. Let us remember with devotion his triumphal entry into Jerusalem that culminated in his triumphant resurrection from the grave. May we follow him with a living faith knowing that by being united with him in baptism we also share in his resurrection and life!

C: "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"

M: We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

C: Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus, my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

M: God, our heavenly Father, has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

C: Amen.

The Word

FIRST LESSON

Zechariah 9: 9, 10

As Lord of all, believers are encouraged to rejoice knowing that their Savior is coming.

Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion! Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the war-horses from Jerusalem, and the battle bow will be broken. He will proclaim peace to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Tune: PROMISED ONE (12 12 with Refrain) Israeli melody, 20th century.

SECOND LESSON

Philippians 2: 5 – 11

As Lord and Savior of all, Jesus became our humble substitute to suffer and die to save us.

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

VERSE OF THE DAY

P: The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

GOSPEL

Mark 11: 1 – 10

As Lord of all, Jesus enters Jerusalem on a donkey to fulfill prophecy and complete His mission of our salvation.

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, saying to them, “Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ tell him, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.’” They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, some people standing there asked, “What are you doing, untying that colt?” They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, “Hosanna!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!” “Hosanna in the highest!”

After the Gospel, the congregation sings:

Children’s Message – Jesus tells us to, “let the little children come to me and do not hinder them for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.” (Mark 10:14). This weekend’s Children’s Message will focus on the King we have in Jesus!

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

Holy Week Schedule:

Maundy Thursday – 7 PM

Easter Breakfast – 8:30 – 10:15 AM

We look forward to worshipping with you this Holy Week!

Holy Week Worship Services

Maundy Thursday gets its name from the Latin word for "commandment." (mandatum) On this night Jesus gave two special commandments to his disciples: 1) to "wash one another's feet," loving others as he loved them, and 2) to eat and drink his body and blood in, with, and under the bread and the wine often. Christ's disciples meet together to listen to Jesus' words, to recall how he established his Supper, and to receive forgiveness of sins, life and salvation through Word and Sacrament.

Good Friday focuses on the crucifixion of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. During this service we meditate on the seven words of Jesus on the cross. Lights will gradually be dimmed as the service progresses. The loss of light symbolizes the ebbing of Jesus' life as well as the darkness that fell from Noon until 3pm on Good Friday. The silence at the very end of the service is interrupted by a loud sound called the "strepitus," which symbolizes the closing of Jesus' tomb. It also foreshadows the rending of his tomb in triumph on Easter morning. The last candle, still burning, is returned to its place, also foreshadowing Jesus' return from death, as he had told his disciples, "in a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me." (John 16:16)

Easter Sunday focuses on the glorious truth that Jesus has risen from the dead! As the angels told the women, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!" (Luke 24:5,6) His resurrection gives us the assurance that Jesus is God's Son, our Redeemer. His resurrection gives us the assurance of our own resurrection and the sure hope of eternal life with him in heaven.

"He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification." Romans 4:25
